Citi Indonesia Wins the Awards “Best Bank in Indonesia”

Jakarta, 6 February 2017 – Entering the new beginning of the year 2017, Citi Indonesia engraves new achievements by winning an award in the category of “Best Bank in Indonesia” by The Asset Magazine. The Triple-A Asset Asian Awards is a prestigious award for companies who excel in their industries, including in financial and banking industry.

In addition to winning the award in the category of Best Bank in Indonesia, The Asset Asian Triple-A also presented three prestigious awards for Citi Indonesia in the category “Best Corporate and Institutional Bank”, “Best Corporate Bond” and “Best Liability Management”.

Chief Executive Officer Citi Indonesia Batara Sianturi said, "In the increasing competition and challenging market conditions, we are grateful for the recognition that we received. These awards reflect the appreciation towards our performance and hard work which signifies the trust and commitment that has been given by our customers to us."

In the first quarter of 2016, Citi Indonesia increased its asset by 6% in comparison to the same period last year and recorded a net income of IDR 633 Billion, which is a 12% increase from the same period last year. In the first semester of 2016, Citi's net profit has increased 55%, to be Rp 1.2 Trillion compared to the same period last year. Citi Indonesia continued to deliver strong performance with net income increase by 64% to Rp 1.90 Trillion in the third quarter of 2016.

"This award is dedicated to all of our employees, business partners, customers and many other stakeholders for their continuous trusts and cooperation over the years. This positive performance is also due to our consistency in implementing the strategy to become a global bank with a concept of simpler, smaller, safer and stronger. May Citi continue to be a trusted partner to our clients in Indonesia." closed Batara.
